Title: CARES Act Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund Policy and Procedure

Effective Date: April 30, 2020

Policy

It is the policy of Remington College to comply with all requirements of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) in processing the Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds available under the CARES Act.

Background and Procedures

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) through the Department of Education has made Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds available to both students and institutions for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

A. STUDENT PORTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION EMERGENCY RELIEF FUNDS

What is the CARES Act?

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act includes a Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF). The Department of Education has made emergency funding available to Remington College that must go directly to students in the form of emergency financial aid grants (EFA Grants), for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to the COVID-19 crisis, including eligible expenses under a student's cost of attendance such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and child-care expenses.

Student Eligibility:

Which students are eligible to receive HEERF – student emergency financial aid funds?

Students must meet Title IV eligibility requirements, be an active student in good standing, and must have expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus in order to be eligible for emergency financial aid funds.

Title IV eligible students must:

- Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a degree or certificate program.
- For currently enrolled students, be making satisfactory academic progress.
- Not owe an overpayment on Title IV grants or loans.
- Not be in default on a Title IV loan.
- File "as part of the original financial aid application process" a certification that includes
 - A statement of educational purpose
 - Student's SSN
- Be a US citizen or national, permanent resident, or other eligible noncitizen.

- Have returned fraudulently obtained Title IV funds if convicted of or pled guilty or no contest to charges.
- Not have fraudulently received Title IV loans in excess of annual or aggregate limits.
- Have repaid Title IV loan amounts in excess of annual aggregate limits if obtained inadvertently.
- Have Selective Service verified.
- Have Social Security Number verified.
- Not have a federal or state conviction for drug possession or sale, within certain time limitations.

Award Amount:

The Award Amount for each student is $1,850.00.

Student Groups:

Remington College has identified Title IV eligible students for each campus, they are put into student groups.

Students who are enrolled in online only programs or students who are not actively enrolled at the time they are to receive the emergency financial aid funds are not eligible to receive emergency financial aid funds.

Students groups include:

- Students enrolled as of 3/13/2020 – Statuses of Active, Extern, TMPLV, LOA
- New Starts for April 2020
